4. USING COOKIES

Cookies are small content files and used to store and receive identifiers and other information about the computers, phones and other devices you access to Websites and help EBM system to provide, protect and improve its services. Cookies allow the Website to record information about the user's visit, and by using them, the next user's visit to the Website will be easier and faster. Cookies files are used by the EBM system if you visit its Website, most often to customize the content, to make anonymous traffic statistics, to select relevant ads, to make it easier to login to the Website and more - detailed description can be found below.

What types of cookies do the Websites use? On the Website, the EBM system can use two types of cookies:

- session cookies These cookies are temporary. They save your browser's cookie to the file only until you quit your browser. These cookies are required for the proper functionality of the Website or associated applications.
- permanent cookies (or tracking cookies) These cookies can be used to make users easier and more user-friendly orientation on the websites, such as simpler and faster navigation. These cookies remain in your browser's cookie file for a longer period of time. The length of that period depends on the selected browser settings. Permanent cookies allow the movement of information to the internet server every time you visit the Website.

Login and security

Cookies help you to register and log on to EBM system Websites. If the users are using them, they can remember their login data, the environment (such as a browser) and the functions, so they do not have to enter them each time or they ensure the security after login.

Ads

With cookies the EBM system can edit and correctly target its ads according to the user's behavior. Advertising systems used on the EBM system use cookies for remarketing, as well as segmentation, also referred to as behavioral targeting, using their own cookies to see how many people saw an ad, clicked on it, or how many of them saw it repeatedly. Information collected by advertising systems does not contain any personal information, such as name, email address or telephone number. Data is only recognized by cookies that contain a string of characters and numbers from which can be seen that the same user is being returned to the site by the same computer from different browsers. Cookies do not keep their entire history of internet movement, but only their assign to categories that are suitable for segmentation. Data resulting from user behavior can be used on its sites by Google, Seznam and Facebook. If you do not want to store these cookies, you can block their using on this address <http://www.youronlinechoices.com/cz/vase-volby>.

Traffic

EBM system is interested in which sites users are viewing and visiting repeatedly, and therefore EBM collects traffic statistics which help them to develop and improve the Website according to users preferences. The EBM system uses traffic measurement by using Google Analytics and Netmonitor on Websites. These measurements record for the EBM system which pages the user has visited on the web page, where the user came from, where the user went, which device, operating system or browser the user uses for browsing, or what the preferred language is. These statistics are completely anonymous, so the EBM system does not know which particular user has visited the site. EBM system does not link the obtained data with any other data and manages cookies in such a way that they do not allow the identification of concrete people.

Online payments

On its internet site the company EBM system uses a payment gateway from ČSOB to provide online payments but has no access to information about user accounts and about credit cards that the users enter into the payment gateway. With payment services, the EBM shares information only to the extent necessary to process payments made on our Website. At payments, the EBM system also analyzes the effort of different sales channels through cookies. Cookies can be rejected by the user or set only using of some in their browser settings. However, if you do not allow the use of cookies to the EBM system, some features and pages will not work as they should. Setting up privacy on a computer where using of cookies can be refused or disabled can be found by the user in the menu of internet browser.
